SUBJECT:

Reducing the Number of Executive Branch
Reports to the Congress

1. In July 1977 this Office was tasked with preparing for NFIB a coordinated listing of all standing requirements by Congress for reports by the Agency. The results are located under Tab A.

2. We have now been tasked to prepare for OMB a report, the subject of which is "Reducing the Number of Executive Branch Reports to the Congress." A copy of OMB's letter to this Agency outlining their request and the format they want us to use is located under Tab B. Your cooperation in making recommendations on those requirements that directly affect your Directorate or office would be greatly appreciated.

3. Since the report located under Tab A is one year old, please advise me if there are any additional reporting requirements for which you are responsible and/or if any of the reporting requirements have been canceled.

4. Your response back to the undersigned would be appreciated by 15 August 1978 so I can compile an Agency response. If you do not have any changes, recommendations or comments, a negative response would be appreciated.

MEMORANDUM FOR: John N. McMahon
Acting Chief, NFIB

FROM : Dr. Sayre Stevens
Acting CIA Member, NFIB

SUBJECT : Reports Required by Congress

REFERENCE : NFIB-18.1/3 dated 18 July 1977

1. (U) Types of Reports. Standing requirements for reports to Congress from CIA fall into three categories: those required specifically by statute; those required as a result of directives levied by the Office of Management and Budget, and those required by various committees of Congress pursuant to their assigned responsibilities.

2. (U) Statutory Requirements.

a. (U) The Case Act (1 U.S.C. 112b)

This Act requires that certain types of agreements with foreign governments be reported to the Senate Foreign Relations and House International Relations Committees. The determination as to whether agreements are reportable and the responsibility for reporting the agreements rests with the Department of State.

b. (U) Hughes-Ryan Amendment (22 U.S.C. 2422, Sec. 662)

This Amendment stipulates that no funds may be expended by the Agency for operations in foreign countries other than for intelligence collection, unless and until the President finds that each such operation is important to the national security and reports, in a timely fashion, a description and scope of such operations to the appropriate committees of Congress.

c. (U) Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

Section 552a(p) of this Act requires that a consolidated report be submitted by the President to the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate, separately listing for each Federal Agency the number of records contained in any system of records which were exempted from the application of the Act during the preceding year.

IPS

3. (U) OMB Circular A-34 (para. 52.3). Pursuant to the above circular, the Office of the Comptroller submits a quarterly report on Budget Execution of the CIA Retirement and Disability System (CIARDS) to the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

4. (U) Periodic Committee Requirements.

House Armed Services Committee
a. (U) Qualifying provision of CIA Retirement Act of 1964. In the report of the House Armed Services Committee accompanying P.L. 94-522, the Committee directed that CIA analyze annually the application of the qualifying provisions found in Sec. 203 of the Act in designating participants and to report the results thereof to the Committee each year not later than October 1.

OP

b. (C) National Intelligence Daily (NID). The NID is provided on a daily basis to the following Committees: Senate Armed Services, Senate Appropriations, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, Senate Foreign Relations, House Armed Services, House Appropriations, House International Relations.

c. (U) Annual worldwide current intelligence briefings. These are prepared at the request of the seven Committees listed in 4, b above and are given orally each year, generally by the DCI.

d. (U) Annual briefing on Soviet and Chinese economies and military expenditures. These are prepared at the request of and given orally by the DCI to the Joint Economic Committee.

e. (U) Listing of Finished Intelligence Production. At the request of a staff member of the Defense Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee, a machine listing of all finished intelligence production is provided weekly to the staff member and he is shown documents he selects from the list.

f. (C) Releases from the Reserve for Contingencies. At the time releases are requested from the Office of Management and Budget, the Senate and House Appropriations Committees are notified of the request. When such releases are approved by the Office of Management and Budget, they are then reported to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence and the House Armed Services Committee.

g. (U) Other Committee requirements. In addition to the above standing requirements, a number of members, committees and staff levy requests on an ad hoc basis which include:

(1) (U) SSCI: Pursuant to its responsibilities under S.Res.400, the SSCI levies numerous requests for reports, documents and briefings on a large variety of Agency activities including finished intelligence, operational activities, activities involving American citizens, and abuses of authority.

(2) (U) House Appropriations Committee. This Committee has been conducting a number of investigations with respect to Agency activities and in connection therewith levies numerous requests for documents and special reports.

(3) (U) International Organizations Subcommittee, House International Relations Committee. The Agency has provided a number of documents for review by staff members of this Subcommittee in connection with its investigation

(4) (U) Other Congressional Investigations. The Agency is currently in negotiations with a number of Committees which ultimately will lead to the provision to those Committees of a large number of documents and reports which bear on their investigations. Those Committees and the subject of their investigations are:

House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct -- [REDACTED]

House Select Committee on Assassinations -- Deaths of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King

Senate Foreign Relations Committee -- Activities of Foreign Intelligence Services in U.S.

Senate Ethics Committee -- [REDACTED]

25X1C

(5) (U) Other Committees*: In addition to the above, the Agency provides briefings and reports as requested to numerous other Committees including:

House Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse

House Government Operations Committee

Senate Governmental Affairs Committee

Senate Human Resources Committee

Senate Commerce, Science and Transportation Committee

House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee

House Science and Technology Committee

~~SECRET~~

(6) (U) Individual Members of Congress*: This Agency receives a large number of requests for briefings, reports, and other data from many members of Congress and their staffs.

5. (S) Reporting requirements which should be brought to the attention of the President. The reporting requirements of paragraph 2, a and b should be brought to the attention of the President. With respect to reporting under the Case Act, those agreements are considered to be among the most sensitive of Agency matters and their compromise could seriously affect the activities involved, including the cessation of the activity and the rupture of relations with the other party to the agreement. With respect to the requirements of the Hughes-Ryan Amendment, at the direction of the President, the DCI is required to brief seven Committees (more than 60 members) and their staff chiefs on all covert action operations conducted by the Agency. These activities also are among the most sensitive of Agency activities and their compromise would lead to the cancellation of a particular operation and could cause serious problems with the governments of the country or countries involved.

* During the first six months of 1977, the Agency serviced over 700 such requests and made available nearly 2,000 documents, both classified and unclassified.

22 JUN 1976

Honorable Mike Mansfield
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Mansfield:

In accordance with your letter of 10 June 1976, we have extended the period of the moratorium on the destruction of certain records which were the subject of your letter of 27 January 1975 in connection with S. Res. 21. The moratorium will expire on 10 December 1976.

In addition, before any such records are destroyed, we shall transmit to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence copies of the record schedules which are submitted to the National Archives and Record Service for their approval prior to the destruction of any records. The same will be done with respect to those routine administrative records which, although not involved under S. Res. 21, were withheld from routine destruction during the life of that Resolution. I am confident that suitable arrangements can be made for review of documents before they are destroyed if this is the desire of the Select Committee.

It is hoped that these arrangements are fully responsive to the wishes of you and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence as outlined to me in your letter of 9 June and Chairman Inouye's letter of 8 June to you.

9?
Sincerely,

George Bush

STATINTL

Dear [REDACTED]

I appreciate your sending to the Select Committee on Intelligence copies of four schedules submitted by the CIA to the National Archives and Records Services (NARS). The schedules which have been submitted to the Select Committee do not include descriptive information on the files. While I appreciate the need to submit unclassified forms to NARS, I would very much appreciate it if the complete schedules described in [REDACTED] letter to [REDACTED] dated August 2, 1976, could be forwarded to the Select Committee where they will be treated under the appropriate security measures.

STATINTL

I would also appreciate it if, pursuant to the proposal by DCI Bush, in a letter dated June 22, 1976 to Senator Mike Mansfield, you could meet with me so that arrangements can be made for the Senate Select Committee to review documents before the documents are destroyed.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

William G. Miller
